State Transportation Innovation Council (STIC)

JERRY NEAL

Environmental Manager, PennDOT District 5-0

Pennsylvania's STIC evaluates well researched and proven technologies that are ready to be implemented in the field. Technologies, tactics, and techniques that are selected will be employed and promoted to become standard practice within the transportation community at the local, regional, or statewide level. Come learn about some of the environmental innovations!

When registering, please specify dinner selection:

- Roasted Chicken Breast with Wild Mushroom Gravy
- Sautéed Beef Tips with Merlot Reduction
- Kennett Square Mushroom Risotto with White Truffle Oil
